

MULE

A mule is a cross between a female horse and a male donkey. Mules are known to be tough, strong, and sure-footed, and can be used for riding, driving, packing, and more! Mules are characterized by their long, tall ears (like a donkey) but are similar in size to a horse. Color the mules below, keeping in mind they can be most of the same colors that horses can be!

